Any vote, including abstentions, on any issue which includes a conflict or potential conflict of interest for a director shall be recorded in the minutes of that meetings. No director shall cast a vote on the provision of services by that director (or any organization which the director directly represents) or vote on any matter which would provide direct financial benefit to that director within the meaning of the Workforce Investment Act of 1998 (the "Act") as amended from time to time.

ARTICLE VIII

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 1: Depositories and Checks. The monies of the corporation shall be deposited in such banks or trust companies as the director may designate and shall be held and drawn out by checks signed in such manner as may be provided by resolution adopted by the Board of Directors.

Section 2: Bonds. In addition to the bond, if any, required of the Treasurer, any other officer or employee handling money of the corporation may be bonded at the corporation's expense in such amounts as may be determined by the Board of Directors.

Section 3: Custodian of Securities. The Board of Directors may from time to time appoint one or more banks or trust companies to act for reasonable compensation as custodian of all securities and other valuables owned by the corporation, and to exercise in respect thereof such powers as may be conferred by resolution of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may remove any such custodian at any time.

Section 4: Certain Loans Prohibited. The corporation shall not make any loan to any officer or director of the corporation.

Section 5: Indemnification of Directors and Officers. To the extent permitted by law, by the corporation's Articles of Incorporation, and herein, each director or officer, or former director or officer, of the Corporation and his legal representative, shall be indemnified by the corporation against liabilities, expenses, counsel fees and costs reasonably incurred by him or his estate in connection with, or arising out of, any action, suit, proceeding or claim in which he is made a party by reason of his being, or having been, such director or officer; and any person who, at the request of the corporation, served as director, officer, employee, or agent or of another enterprise in which the corporation had an interest and his legal representative, shall in like manner be indemnified by the corporation; provided that in neither case shall the corporation indemnify such director or officer with respect to any matters as to which he shall be finally adjudged in any such action, suit or proceeding to have been liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duties as such director or officer. The indemnification herein provided for, however, shall apply also in respect of any amount paid in compromise of any such action, suit, proceeding or claim asserted against such director or officer (including expenses, counsel fees and costs reasonably incurred in connection therewith), provided the Board of Directors of the corporation shall have first approved such proposed compromise settlement and determined that the director or officer involved was not guilty of negligence or misconduct; but in taking such action any director involved shall not be qualified to vote thereon.

In determining whether or not a director or officer was guilty of negligence or misconduct in relation to any such matters, the Board of Directors may rely conclusively upon an opinion of independent legal counsel selected by the Board of Directors. Unless otherwise provided by law, any compromise settlement authorized herein shall be effective without the approval of any court. The right to indemnification herein provided shall not be exclusively of any other rights to which such director or officer may be lawfully entitled.

No director or officer of the corporation shall be liable to any other director or officer or other person for any action taken or refused to be taken by him as director or officer with respect to any matter within the scope of his official duties except such action or neglect or failure to act shall constitute negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duties as director or officer.
